

Food, fun & Christmas shopping every Saturday at the Key Largo/La Cabana Christmas Bazaar!

The holiday season will soon arrive in Aruba, and festivities and activities will be in full swing. Islanders and visitors can get a jump on some shopping and seasonal traditions at the new Christmas Bazaar being conducted this Saturday evening, November 18 from 7:00 to 10:00 P.M. in the parking lot between the La Cabana Villas and the Key Largo Casino. A partnership of the two establishments will mean some shopping bargains accompanied by fun, food and drink, and the music of well-known gaita groups. This coming weekend will feature performances by Sensacionales, Katatumbo, Originales and the Chicas Gaiteras.

During a press conference held at the Blue Marlin Restaurant in the Key Largo Casino, Delia Willems, casino sales and marketing manager was joined by Ilka Lacle and Miveca Croes of the La Cabana Villas to extend an invitation to the public for the event. They also took the opportunity to announce some holiday specials and events that will be taking place at the villas and casino over the coming season.

Beginning today and ending in one month, on December 17, the La Cabana Villas offers a very nice deal for a three-day getaway in their luxurious all suites resort. Stay three days and only pay for two for the very special price of only 126 Arubian florins per night, flat rate for an occupancy of up to four people, with a nominal charge of only 17 florins per person for additional guests. This fantastic rate includes tax, service charge and energy tax. During their stay, guests are eligible to participate in the free slots tournaments held twice a week at the Key Largo Casino.

Additionally beginning today, there will be a special "Happy Hour" at the Sunset Bar located at La Cabana Villas, which will continue every Friday evening from 5:00 to 7:00 P.M. Performing during the happy hour will be the popular local band "Le Groove." This event will feature two-for-one drinks, plus a weekly "special drink" at a "special price."

The Christmas Bazaar will be held over the next five Saturdays during the holiday season, with the last being on December 16. All of the special events at the villas and the casino are participating in an end of the year holiday campaign that will award raffle tickets for every twenty-five Arubian florins ($14) spent while staying at the villas or attending the bazaar. At the final bazaar, the drawing for the raffle winners will take place, and some lucky couple will receive a one-week stay at the La Cabana Villas, including Christmas Dinner for two in the Blue Marlin Restaurant.

Looking about the island, one can see that Aruba is geared up for a festive holiday, and the new Key Largo Casino is joining in with La Cabana Villas in planning some memorable events. Gift shopping will be not be a harried chore, but a fun experience accompanied by entertainment and the lively music of gaitas, which adds to the enjoyment. If one is not familiar with the gaita music, an integral part of the holidays in this region of the world, then this is an experience not to be missed!
